Dear Delegate Anderson:

I am very pleased to inform you that City Schools is moving forward with the project to replace the track and football field at Baltimore City College. This major renovation, at an estimated cost of $1.2 million, represents a significant upgrade to the school's athletic facilities and demonstrates our commitment to City College athletes. I would like to commend you on your steadfast support and advocacy for this project.

The following schedule details the timeline and completion date for the project:

Hire Engineer - September 2011
Design Complete - December 2011
Public Bid - January 2012
Board Approval - February 2012
Construction begins - March 2012
Project Complete - August 2012

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact me at your earliest convenience. Thank you for your commitment to our student athletes, and to all the students and families of City Schools.

Sincerely,

Andrés A. Alonso, Ed. D.
